Prince Castle Named One of the Nation's Best and Brightest Companies to Work For

CAROL STREAM, IL, January 25, 2018 (NewsWire.com) -

When it comes to the nation's best and brightest companies for people to work at, Prince Castle, a leading global foodservice technology, and equipment manufacturing company, makes the list. The Marmon/Berkshire Hathaway Company was named just that by the National Association of Business Resources.

Prince Castle plans to garner that recognition for years to come.

"At Prince Castle, one of our core values is that we work for each other. Everyone understands we have to succeed as a team while excelling as individuals," the company's Sector President, Brian Truesdale said. "By doing this, we have created a culture that continues to build customer, employee and supplier relationships that are based on trust and respect."
